VALLEY FAIR MEETING

Vote to Sell Parcel of Real Estate Followed Long Discussion-By-Law file-mittee was elected.

After a short recess the committee reported the following nominations:

President, Dr. F. H. O'Connor of Brattle-

Mr. Cowles opposed the resolution, stating that there was $200 worth of lumber on the land and that a good sum could be realized from the sale of sand. Mr. fum of Landgrave is carring for him. be realized from the sale of sand. Mr. Severance also was opposed, his idea being that the more land the association owned the better it would stand with the banks. L. T. Lavell of Bellows Fails thought the land should be retained a few years longer. Mr. Holden thought the association did not want to go into the properties and the association did not want to go into the properties and the association did not want to go into the properties and the association of the rectangle of this branch of the Federation work. He hoped the motion would prevail. H. E. Taylor thought the resolution ought to be done to his crops by Johnson's cattle. A large number of witnesses were examined. The jury returned no, each policy of the provides that, no stock-holder shall be entitled to more than one yet except in the final disposition of the property, that is, liquidation. A question of the legality of the by-law was raised of the legality of the by-law was raised and H. R. Lawrence showed that it was contrary to the Vermont statute which allows a stockholder to vote according to the number of shares he owns. In this he was supported by Judge J. L. Martin, who declared the by-law to be illegal. It was then voted on motion of Mr. Cowles who declared the by-laws amended so as to have the by-laws amended so as to make them legal and to have them reprinted. J. G. Uffery protested against the vote, having been refused the right to vote eight shares which he owned on the ground that he was not a stockholder of record, the shares not having been transferred to him in the beaks, but if was shown by Mr. Lawrence that as Mr. Uffery was not a stockholder of record he didn't have the right even to protest.

Resolutions expressing the thanks of the association to J. A. Taylor and H. G. Clark for their efficient services as general superintendent and superintendent of the cartle department respectively during the cartle department respectively during the training the Bartlett hotel and the yillage in axistence were introduced by L. E. Holden and were adopted by a unanimous voice. Vice President O'Neill then called upon the new president Dr. O'Connor, who took the chair and made brief remarks. He said he would fill the office as a citizen and not as a physician and, turning to Mr. Severatnee, he said he would not compel any man to submit to an operation or take a pill against his will. He said he consciouted to be a candidate only after long deliberation. He urged that every person present constitute himself a committee of one to work for the success of person present constitute himself a com-mittee of one to work for the success of the fair, and he felt sure that success would follow such an effort.
